Why supporting local is important right now

Currently, a majority of our home-grown enterprises are unable to operate fully. Though not all, many have since found other ways of providing and delivering services and products to the larger population. Partnerships have been formed and innovation has come to the fore. What remains important for citizen owned businesses is continued consumption of their products so that their staff have jobs to go back to. Let us save Local businesses by BUYING Local.

When you support local, you not only empower a community; you also help a company remain operational.

Support Local #TogetherWeCanBeatCovid19

HEALTH ALERT: When you are shopping or in public places, remember to always wear a face mask and stay 2m apart from others. Also, remember to wash your hands thoroughly with soap, or sanitize them as often as you can.

The Mother of Botswana's Gospel

She is this country's long-term tv personality having presented on a godly and inspirational show, the best there was yet to air on the national Television, Melodi Ya kgalaletso. Every Sunday many gospel lovers would be glued to their screens enjoying local and even international gospel songs, and it only got better as it was hosted by a humble soul, the show's very own Kolobetso Gaolathe. The mother of three kids is not just a tv presenter, besides that she is also an Accountant, Founder and Director of Mogogi Foundation Trust.

You are one of the country's renowned presenters, how has the journey been for you?

The Journey had so many challenges, so many trials and criticisms there and there, some people will even judge, as people look upon you as role model there will be a lot of expectations.

Melodi Ya kgalaletso showcases gospel talent, is it the one that turned you to Christ?

I was born and raised in a Christian home where I was grounded and rooted in the word of God, so I was already born again before I started presenting The show.

You have been in the show for quite a long time now, what is it that has kept you with the show?

I have been on the show for a long time now, the secret is to be humble and God will lift you, keep you and use you.

Growing with the show as a Christian, how have you come to use it as a tool to serve God?

The good news has been spread to believers and non-believers and we still continue to make sure the word of God reach all, those in prisons and hospitals and comfort those with broken hearts.

How has the journey with the show been?

So far the journey has been smooth regardless of the challenges because if God is on our side no one can be against us.

How have you gone by resolving those challenges?

The only weapon I use to resolve challenges is prayer and believing God's word.

We are living in changing times and social changes, what adjustments has the show had to make?

Regardless of the challenges we are facing our show has not been affected-we continue to spread the good news and make sure it reaches the young and old more especially those in hospitals and prisons.

How would you say the show has changed lives?

We have received so many testimonials from different people more especially in prisons, people have given their lives to JESUS through the word they receive.

What is your future with the show?

God is about to take me to another level so far I can say I have done my part and is high time someone takes over.

Are there no any other endeavours you are to embark upon as a presenter and television personality?

Yes I'm already into decor and event management, So out of studio I keep myself occupied.

Let's talk about you personally, how has the show affected you into the person you are today?

This is a difficult question because it's hard to rate oneself, lovers of my show can answer this better than me, However let me say personally this show has helped me or is helping me to grow spiritual as I encourage my listeners with the word of God every week. I also get encouraged and moulded into a better person.

Do people ever get to perceive that being the lady from the gospel show you uphold yourself in a certain way?

Dealing with a gospel show is delicate because people will measure your spirituality with the way you conduct yourself. As a role model I build and inspire a lot of young women.

Apart from the show what else are you doing?

I'm good at decor and event management, but I'm an Accountant by profession.

Is there any other profession that you are pursuing?

As an event manager, covid-19 has really affected events, but besides that I'm also working on my Organisation called Mogogi Foundation Trust which will be dealing with street kids, disabled and elderly people.

How are those working out for you?

The Organisation is working for me as I believe so much in giving. It is our duty as children of God to be our brothers keepers, as my late grandfather taught me about the spirit and power of giving.

How is your day to day life away from the profession?

I am a mother of 3 kids so I enjoy spending time with them, there is no any other place I enjoy than the comfort of my house.

As a woman of God what advices would you give out?

Believe in yourself, Believe that you can make it, follow your heart, love God which takes a lot of courage, determination and patience to achieve what you want in life, never be discouraged by circumstances keep believing, keep hoping there is light at the end of tunnel, learn to push with stubbornness.

Onzima Keeps Kwaito Legacy Alive

Many upcoming artists to this day may seem to be headed towards hip-hop, RnB and amapiano. It is very rare to find music talent who want to venture with passion into the Kwaito genre, but that is a whole different case with the humble Onzima. Having grown with the love and passion for music, he decided to take to the music world as a kwaito music maker. Born and raised in Molepolole, the artist who always had a passion for music decided to get into the industry back in 2014 when he became a crew member of a group called Amavandal which is a kwaito crew.

Born Elias Samo, he decided to become identified by the stage name "Onzima." When asked why the name he said that when starting his music career, things were hard for him and he had not managed to do well at school so referring to the situations in a Zulu term "kuzima" which means it is hard. That was how the Onzima name was birthed. When starting off as a musician he was part of the Amavandal crew and they released some songs but he eventually had to part ways with the crew due to certain differences. He then went on to release some singles as a kwaito artist that featured some local and South African artists like Skeatman and from all those songs the one he had so much success with was "Oketsa" the song that he worked with featuring Skeatman.

The artist also said that he is currently working on an album to be released anytime soon. He has collaborated with various local artists and others from South Africa. He said that however things may be, it is very tough for him in the industry and having to market himself or building a brand is a very hard thing to do. Over that, the Covid-19 which seems to be here to stay also has affected his music. Although things are not easy for him, the artist said he is trying all every means possible to grow his brand. He usually does clips singing to his songs on social media platforms and seems to work out for him in branding himself.

When talking about his music, and genre, he said that his was a different kind of Kwaito genre. It is the kind that has some afro-pop to it with rap as well which makes it to have a different sound over all the traditional kwaito songs one may be used to. The kwaito maker said his journey came through inspiration from listening to the old school kwaito as he was growing up. He also said that he used to listen to South African artists like Zola, Kabelo, Mapaputsi and many others and they made him grow in love with the genre. "The songs were great and even had a message to pass on," he said. From them all all-time favourite was Zola he loved the way he sang and rapped which was unique and really inspired him.

Onzima also went on to say that at the moment he and aspires work with many renounced artists in the kwaito industry like Family, Dlala and Zola.

SOUTH AFRICA EMBRACES Young Prince

He has now penetrated the South African industry and even got embraced and hailed by big names over one of Africa's big industries. The young Motswana who is a musician, actor, TV host and MC has been ambitiously aiming for the stars in South Africa and went on to be recognised and embraced by South Africa's Boity as well who seems to have high hopes for the Young Prince. He recently had a chat with CW and this is what he had to say:

How long have you been an actor?

It's been 4 years now in the acting industry.

Are you in a place in the industry that you would say you are proud of and impressed by?

Yes, I am proud of myself and grateful that I have achieved my goal.

The film and television industry in Botswana seems to be growing slowly, what can you say about this?

I think its lack of support that's why it's not growing.

What would you suggest to be done to help grow the industry?

People must start supporting local talent and the government must start funding short films to help grow local talent.

You have worked along many South African productions, may you kindly name some of them and share with us how you managed to penetrate all through there?

I have played on Rhythm City, eTV's Scandal, Muvhango, 7delaan, Rockville, my other side on Netflix, Generations the legacy. It's all because of self-determination and hard work that I managed to penetrate through the SA productions.

What are the projects you are working on at the moment?

I am working on a lot of projects. Currently, I am working on opening my own clothing store in Johannesburg.

So being in this industry at this time with corona being a problem, how have things been on your side?

I would say things are not as good as before Covid-19, I used to get more acting gigs but ever since Covid-19 hit us, it's really hard.

Besides the coronavirus challenge what else have you gone through in your pursuit to greatness?

I went through depression and spiritual awakening, during that time I lost friends and I nearly lost myself due to depression.

Surely there are things you always look at and have a smile about having achieved, what are those?

It really makes me happy that I managed to make my dreams come true, I managed to be on TV like I've always wanted and it shows that I can get anything that I want.

You have worked with big names like Boity, how has that made you feel?

It feels so good and it really shows me that anything is possible if you believe in yourself and work on your goals.

What have you learnt from her?

I have learnt a lot and I would say it's been a dream come true, I have long wanted to have a mother like her in the industry.

How did you get to become connected to her in the first place?

I am one person who suffers from depression and it's been 5 years now. I remember when I was going through a lot, her mother texted me to ask how I was doing and how she could help me. I told her everything and I told her I wish Boity could help me, that's simply how I met Mama Boity.

Have you done any projects together?

Not yet but I know very soon I will collaborate with her.

Who else do you aspire to work with in the industry?

Boity, Connie Ferguson, Cassper Nyovest, Lasizwe, Dj Maphorisa, SHIMZA, Girly Odibodi and Kamo Mphela.

Any last words?

I would like to give a shout out to Mama Boity, Lee Mpaki, Tiffany Metjah and others respectfully including my family for their support.

ORENEILE ISN'T JUST A MUSICIAN

He is one of the upcoming local artists to look out in the near future. Oreneile Kubyadi specializes not only in music but he is also a cricket coach, a barber and teaches kids to play keyboard in his home village.

When did you join the music industry?

I started music in 2014.

What motivated you to join the music industry?

Music had always been part of my life and my family. So that alone inspired me to write my own songs. My parents bought me a guitar and a keyboard, then I fell in love with music until today.

When did you release your first song or album?

I released my first single titled 'Gettin It' in the same year I started music.

How was the song received in the market?

It did incredibly great. It aired in all the local radio stations. I sold all the discs so that was a great achievement.

What is the biggest problem you have come across in this journey as an upcoming musician?

I've experienced problems to a point where all my project was lost in the studio. Again, now the Covid-19 pandemic has taken its toll in the music Industry and it massively hindered the whole music industry in Botswana.

Have you collaborated with any artist so far?

I've collaborated with various artists like; Thintee. Spiza, Rulebizzy, Mjaxy Wa Modidi and Alil Boy.

What was the motive behind the song?

I'm versatile and I jump in any genre but mostly my songs are all about love because I'm love struck.

Name one local musician you are looking up to?

I look up to no one "yet" but I've seen 'Bafana Ba' and I think they are really talented.

A Minute With Trey

Tsothe Mabei aka Icon Trey from Kanye joined the music industry in 2019 because he believed that his talent will pay off one day. Asked in an interview with this publication, if music is something he had always wanted to do, Icon Trey said that it has always been his dream to see himself in the music industry.

He started off by writing songs in 2015 and was inspired by an American singer – Neyo, in Botswana he looks up to the local artist, A.T.I and he works hard to see himself popular one day. Trey, who does music with passion and for a living has so far worked with A'ron Psalm aka Aron Pholo whom he featured in his single album called No Doubts. This single was released on May 28, 2021 it is an inspiration to everyone who struggles with the hardships of life.

Trey said that his single already plays on Gabz FM and it's his first play on radio adding that before its release, while he was still sharpening his talent he kept on just writing songs. He wrote about fifteen of them although they didn't make it to the radio stations.

Talking about his achievements, Trey said that in 2019 he was nominated for BOGMA (Botswana Gospel Music Awards) where he wrote rap verses and submitted them for the nominations. Besides music, he does furniture design (house fittings) and plays basketball. "Am still a student, I study Certificate in Furniture Design and Manufacturing," he said.

In the near future I want to see myself performing in a foreign country and featuring international artists but locally, I want to feature Spiza and Dada Kavino. I have a link on sound cloud, audio mac, facebook, Mp3 music juices, this is where I reach my followers.

His motto: "Sweat at a pace so that at war you sweat less" simply means work hard right now so that in the final points you work a little as everything flows"

Mosu Matsie 585 Studios Dedicates To Help Struggling Talent

In 2020 in the middle of a world affecting crisis, one man found this an opportunity to be a servant of hope. Rapula Motlhanka started up a studio that would go on to help young aspiring artists without the means to make it in the industry finance wise. When asked why he named the studio by the name Mosu Matsie 585, he said that it is because of the location to the studio. The studio is in a resident plot numbered 585 and there is a Mosu tree in the compound, the ward or the neighbourhood to the place is known as Matsie and all that give out the names to the studio.

The studio has more than 20 artists under it who are mostly young and aspiring artists and there are veteran artists as well whom the studio is working with. They have been working on a project as a studio called AFRICA, an album expected to hit the market anytime soon next month. The album has 13 songs in it and has been composed by all the different young artists working with the studio and these also include one South African who once worked with Zahara.

When talking about how he came up with the vision he said that the primary idea for the studio was to start recording artists but the whole idea was diverted to what is now the studio's norm when the Covid-19 hit. Since people were highly affected by this Covid-19 business wise, he decided to help out those who were extremely disadvantaged and incapable than the rest among musicians. That is how the project to help young artists who are out there struggling got birthed. He says that he started scouting for young talent and started in Mogoditshane looking for guitarists and those who play folk music, he found them and other musicians. "I found it fit then commit to this as a community based project knowing that it is one thing many may fear to embark on," said Rapula. He also said they looked into getting out there and locating young under privileged talents outside Gaborone.

Although this grand gesture to the community has been good for young people out there and taking them off the streets, they admitted that it is not an easy and simple thing to do especially financial wise. Motlhanka said that the competition out there is too much and they in the other hand are part of the game yet not gaining financially. He went on to emphasise the need they had with financial assistance from enterprises and local companies out there, the government included too. He also said that most are youngsters without any studio experience and some have talent but not the creativity to compose ideas.

Motlhanka finally said that he did call out for helpers out there to also land a hand in the project so that he may also finally be able to manage and carry the project among other parts of the country.

THE BIGGEST KEY TO HEALTHY HAIR: MOISTURE

One of the first things to learn about on the journey of natural hair is moisture.

Moisture is key to many hair related problems such as dryness, tangling, breakage, matting and hair loss. When hair strands are properly moisturised, they become flexible and can be easily manipulated with less breakage hence length can be retained.

Keeping your hair moisturised plays a very important role in the overall health of your hair. Water is what moisturises our hair strands, but water alone is insufficient. When evaporation takes place, your hair goes from soft and plump to dry and crunchy. Therefore, you need to accommodate butters and oils as emollients in your Moisturising routine.

Here are two methods of Moisturising.

1. LOC method- Abbreviation of Liquid, oil and cream. It is a method of layering your hair products on your hair to hold moisture.

2. LCO method- abbreviation of Liquid, cream, and oil. It is also a method of layering hair products.

You can accommodate Fro'Niques Hair Care Products in your Moisturising routine. You first spritz your hair with water (Liquid) the go in with Fro'Niques Hair Butter (Cream) followed with Fro'Niques Hair Growth Oil (Oil)

Here are some of the tips that will help keep your hair moisturised.

1. Avoid heat
2. Trim ends regularly
3. Use a Moisturiser that has water as its first or second ingredient
4. Spritz your hair with water and seal in with oils and butters
5. Sleep with a satin bonnet
6. Deep condition regularly

Are You Being Too Patient With Him?

By Kate Ariel

Are you being an enabler to a man that will never change??

- He says she's just a friend, but if she's just a friend why haven't I met her???
- He says he's getting a divorce, but two years in and he's still married and swears he only communicates with her 'for the kids'
- He says he's taking it slow (5 years dating), but I'm not getting any younger and I want to be married!
- He says I'm the only one he wants, but still hasn't made it official that we're dating and a couple...

And so on, and so forth...

I think you get the picture!

Guys say things that their actions don't live up to!

What's new...right ladies???

But I know what you're thinking...

What if he IS going to get that divorce, and what if she IS just a friend, and what if HE IS just taking his time...?

If I move on I may miss out on what could've been a great man! AND, I 100% agree!

But I also disagree (yeah I'm difficult like that)

Because I also think maybe you're being TOO patient with him! 'He's Lying Sis'

Is It True That A High Fever Can Cause Brain Damage?

It's possible, but it's extremely unlikely. It's not unusual for a sick child to run a temperature of 104 or even 105 degrees Celsius. To cause brain damage, a child's temperature would need to reach 107.6 degrees Celsius hard to imagine, unless the child was trapped in a hot car, for instance, or was much overdressed while feverish.

So try not to panic when your child has a fever. In fact, while a fever is a sign that something's wrong, in many instances it will help your child fight a bacterial or viral infection, both by raising his temperature, most bacteria and viruses thrive at 98.6 degrees Celsius and by spurring the immune system to make more infection-fighting white blood cells and antibodies.

Attractive Flower Garden Designs

These design ideas are a start so that you can see how beautiful a garden flower looks and get started from here. Flower gardens come in various forms, from the flowers and the colours to the design choices and landscape that you use.

Flower Garden Ring

This flower garden looks every bit the centerpiece that it is! With a large, eye-catching plant in the middle, the bed of flowers looks ready to be adored by your visitors and friends.

Knot Flower Garden

The sad part in this is that knot gardens need a large enough plot of land and a dedicated gardener. But a miniature version at your lawn wouldn't hurt, you know.

Flower Garden on an Antique Truck

Nothing screams antiquated more than putting an old rusty truck right in the middle of your flower garden and making it the centerpiece. The neat retro appeal of this aesthetic will surely take anyone several generations old to a quiet trip down memory lane.

Cinder Block Flower Garden

Cinder blocks make great planters for your flower garden because their gray look balances out the vibrant colours of the flowers.

Flower Garden Bed around the House

The bright colours of the flower garden wrap your house in a light atmosphere that keeps everyone feeling poppy and happy. Plus, they look great by default, so you wouldn't easily mess this up.

Hanging Flower Garden

The planters are covertly hidden by the healthy inflorescences, giving an illusion that these flowers grow out of the brick wall itself.

Flower Garden along the Window

Having planters attached to your window renders your outside view look a ton better. When seen from inside, the flowers make for great lower borders to the picture. Looking at it from outside, your house gets adorned with gorgeous colors that liven up your brick walls.

Recycled Rubber Tires Flower Garden

If you have some scrap tires lying around, turning them into a flower garden will not only make your lawn look good, it will help lessen the trash problems related to them.

"Well, where is it?" asked the cashier. "I left him home." He answered. "Sorry," Cashier said, "You can't buy the dog food if I can't see the dog. That's the rule." The next day he returned to the store and bought some cat food to the checkout. "Do you have a cat?"

asked the cashier. "Yes," he said, "but I left him home." "Sorry," she said, "If I can't see the cat, I can't sell you the food. That's the rule." The next day the man walked into the same store with a brown paper bag. He walked up to the cashier and said, "Put your hand in here." The cashier put her hand in and said, "It's soft and warm. What is it?" the man replied, "I'd like three rolls of toilet paper please!"

A young ventriloquist is touring the clubs and one night he's doing a show in a small club in London. With his dummy on his knee, he's going through his usual dumb blonde jokes when a blonde woman in the 4th row stands on her chair and starts shouting: "I've heard enough of your stupid blonde jokes. What makes you think you can stereotype women that way?" what does the colour of a person's hair have to do with her worth as a human being? Its guys like you who keep women like me from being respected at work and in the community and from reaching our full potential as a person because and your kind continue to perpetuate discrimination against not only blondes, but women in general... and all in the name of humor! The ventriloquist is embarrassed and begins to apologize, when the Blonde yells: "You stay out of this, mister! I'm talking to that little idiot on your knee."

The woman begins to turn blue and shakes her head no. the hillbilly walks over to the woman, lifts up her dress, yanks down her drawers and quickly gives her right butt cheek a lick with his tongue. The woman is so shocked that she has a violent spasm and the obstruction flies out of her mouth. As she begins to breathe again, the hillbilly walks slowly back to his table. # Beef Skillet

This is a quick and easy ground beef skillet dish with Greek style seasonings including spinach, olives, feta, oregano and plenty of fresh herbs!

It is super simple, throw together, recipe for a fast meal and it's basically a one-skillet ground beef dish with some of preferred Greek inspired flavours and ingredients. It starts out with cooking the ground beef along with onion followed by adding spinach that wilts in the heat, and then olives and feta. The dish is seasoned with plenty of herbs including oregano, parsley, dill and mint and a hint of cinnamon. This dish only takes about 20 minutes to make so you can easily cook some rice or pasta to serve it over. It is great with a side of Greek salad, but it slaps with fat cakes.

Prep Time: 5 minutes
Cook Time: 15 minutes
Total Time: 20 minutes
Servings: 4

Ingredients

1 pound ground beef (and/or lamb)
1 onion, diced
3 cloves garlic, chopped
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon (optional)
2 teaspoons oregano
4 cups baby spinach
1/3 cup red olives, sliced
1/3 cup green olives, sliced
1/3 cup feta, crumbled
Salt and pepper to taste
3 green onions, thinly sliced
2 tablespoons parsley, chopped
1 tablespoon mint, chopped
1 tablespoon dill, chopped

Directions

- Cook the ground beef and onion in a large skillet over medium heat, breaking the beef apart as it cooks, before draining off any excess grease.

- Add the garlic, cinnamon and oregano and cook until fragrant, about a minute.
  - Add the spinach, mix it in and cook until it wilts, about 2-3 minutes.
  - Mix in the olives and feta before seasoning with salt and pepper to taste.
  - Mix in the green onions, parsley, mint and dill and enjoy.
- Option: Replace the spinach with kale.
- Option: Add 1 large diced tomato and bring to a bli before adding the spinach.
- Tip: Cook rice or pasta while the beef cooks and it will be done at about the same time.

MOTLOGELWWA FINDS LOVE IN ART

Thamaga native, Motlogelwa Keaja is an amazing 34 year old fire fighter who also does fine art. He currently resides in Maun and found love in the world of creativity and does it with passion

Tell us about your art work and the journey behind it.

I started my career as an artist at a tender age of 10, after I was inspired by my cousin who used to draw cartoons.

When did you start doing art, and what materials do you use to do your work?

I loved drawing so much that I could just draw in class during school lessons. My artwork focuses mainly on drawing and painting; and I use pencil, pen and oil paint for teaching, healing, decorating and making the general humanity happy.

How is the business doing since you started it?

My business is targeting everyone, but it's unfortunate that in terms of sales due to Covid-19 there are no exhibitions and sales are very low.

Is artwork your everyday work or there is something else you are doing for a living?

I am not only an artist, I am also a professional Fire Fighter and am passionately doing art as a part time. I have so far sold about 20 pieces and created a Facebook page called Keaja Artcom, where I reach my clients and it is where they too meet my passion.

Share your achievements about your business since its inception?

I have so far won only 2 awards, being number 1 in 2019 on President Competition (painting categories). I also won a bronze award at the Okavango artists association still in 2019. But ever since Covid-19 pandemic hit us, the creative industry has been negatively affected.

What are your last words to other young artists hoping to make it in the art industry?

I would like to thank all those who supported me all the years, and still continue to support me. I would also like to edge the upcoming artists to focus on their God given talents.

LOCAL CELEBRITY DJ AND WIFE SEPARATE

*My wife and I have amicably decided and agreed to end our 6-years union. Through the support of our families, relatives and friends, the journey has been guided by love, support and most important dialogue. Your support during this difficult journey is counted on as always. We thank you for your love in all the years we have been together and we look forward to more love as we both begin new chapters in our lives. ## JANA DUGGAR AND STEPHEN WISSMANN: WEDDING PLANS LEAKED?!

For months, it has been apparent to fans that Jana Duggar is hiding her courtship with Stephen Wissmann. No one is sure of the reason, with speculation ranging from Jim Bob's orders to her disgusting brother's arrest. But the Duggars do not court lightly, or for very long. Now, cyber-sleuths have uncovered hard evidence that Jana and Stephen have set a wedding date. Jana Duggar is 31 years old. Fans have been wondering when this day would come. In the real world, it is perfectly normal to not be married at that age, especially among her fellow Millennials.

From the perspective of her family, church, and the IBLP cult, she's old enough to have been married for a dozen years, with numerous children. Jana has been seen again and again spending time with Stephen Wissmann and his family. It's safe to say that things appear to be serious. Duggar girls aren't allowed to date casually (or date at all) or simply hang out with guy friends. Late last year, she appeared to spend Christmas with the Wissmann family in Nebraska. That is a huge deal for most families, but particularly given how seriously fundamentalists take holidays and family. Seeing it happen again for the Fourth of July ... that's almost confirmation to most. Since Jana was first seen spending time with the Wissmanns, fans have been on the lookout for more information. Random posts by Stephen's relatives are poured over for a silhouette or mention of Jana. Meanwhile, she herself has not seemed interested in sharing anything with her legions of followers. Social media viewers have spotted, screenshotted, and discussed wedding registries and websites and what they seem to reveal. source.net

BOTSWANA'S TEAM HAS AN UNSUCCESSFUL OLYMPICS START-OFF

The long awaited and anticipated Olympics that have had critics on their proceedings have already began. Regardless of the many critics they have been faced by many people who have protested their being held while the coronavirus was surging with the new variant, they have however kick-started and had many warming up to them as is tradition. Our local team however has not had a good start among the games. Many athletes from the Botswana team who took part in their respective competitions did not do well.

By the end of the first week of the Olympics, there had not been any medal registered for the Botswana Team although they had participated in various events like swimming, Boxing and weightlifting. Some of the athletes whose Olympics journeys were put to an early end include, Keamogetse Sadie Kenosi in the Women Featherweight against Britain's Karriss Artingstall. Another boxer who also lost was Botswana's Mahomme Rajab Otukile who lost against Martinez Rivas Herney of Colombia. Magdeline Moyengwa also got eliminated from the Women's weightlifting.

Meanwhile countries like the United States and China were having a great start off to the Olympics and by the first five days the US had about 22 medals while China had 21 and the Host Japan 16 Medals equal to Russia.

Nevertheless there are still hopes among Botswana that there will be a medal or two brought home.
